

Lucy's renewed passion has resulted in the growth of her blog AND in her publishing brand new cookbooks and ebooks.

AFTER TAKING AN EXTENDED BREAK FROM ACTIVELY BLOGGING, LUCY WANTED TO GET BACK HER PASSION, AND HER SENSE OF SELF.

Lucy saw her numbers declining and realized she wasn't putting in the personal effort anymore. After hearing positive comments from previous members, Lucy turned to the Mastermind community to help get a stronger sense of her own impact and get herself back in the game

Her goals: To regain and renew her sense of self and get her passion back for blogging by being hands-on again

What worked: The inspiration and motivation from the group helped Lucy renew her drive and get her passions reignited.

Results: Lucy's traffic has been way up and continues to rise steadily. She is more intentional and loves being more personally involved.

What's next: Lucy's renewed passion has resulted in her publishing cookbooks and ebooks for alternate streams of revenue. She has also been instrumental in developing a website that supports other food bloggers and their passion!

"THE NEW COOKBOOKS AND HIGHER NUMBERS ARE GREAT, BUT MOST IMPORTANTLY, I JUST REALLY ENJOY BLOGGING AGAIN!"
